Program Objective

Develop strength in tele-sourcing, "innerviewing", cold call recruiting and uniqueness positioning. Add a minimum of 35% higher annual billings to an experienced recruiter or a minimum of 225K in first year billings to a newly hired recruiter.

Who Attends

Recruiters: All levels. Rookies, Seniors needing new ideas, and Rock Stars who are stuck or leveled out.

Sales/Account Managers: Selling the differentiators of your firm's recruiting technique must be understood first hand to effectively sell against the competition.

Why?

You won't find a more comprehensive, more demanding, one day program, anywhere. Leffkowitz can keep an audience riveted, nonstop. He will make live calls, have the audience make calls and there will be a ton of role playing. The world's leaders in search and contract staffing send their most promising investment grade players to Morgan Consulting Groups ranch programs. Business development specialists learn the unique complexities of how their recruiting team operates, enabling them to sell the process that attracts higher quality candidates, without the fluff.

This is a condensed version of the Morgan Consulting Group's 3 day flagship ranch program.

It is the root philosophy from which Morgan Methodology stems.
